Examples of Family/Friend Stewardship

- Cooking dinner for my family
- Taking dinner to a sick or elderly relative
- Reading a book to my children/grandchildren
- Babysitting for a friend or relative
- Making dinner for my busy, grown children
- Helping my parents without being asked
- Helping my spouse with a chore
- Providing emotional support to my child/teen
- Turning off the television to talk

What are some things that my family and/or friends have done for me that I am grateful for?

What are some things that I do for my family and/or friends? What gifts do I currently share?

What are some things I'd like to work on to be a better steward to my family and friends?

What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can faith save him? If a brother or a sister has nothing to wear and has no food for the day, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, keep warm, and eat well," but you do not give them the necessities of the body, what good is it? So also faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead. James 2:15-17.
