Examples of Stewardship at Work, School or in Retirement

- Help a friend with homework
- Volunteer to read to or with students
- Help a coworker with a project
- Reach out to someone who could use a friend
- Give credit to someone for a job well done
- Set a positive tone in your work, school or retirement community
- Conduct yourself with honesty and integrity in your academic and professional dealings

Think of a person at your school, workplace or retirement community whom you would consider to be an example of Christian discipleship. What are some things that person does that makes you think of him or her as a Christian disciple? Is it the person's attitude? ...is it his or her actions? ... Or is it some combination of both?

What is something I could do this week to be an example of Christ to my coworkers or classmates?

As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace. 1 Peter 4:10.
